

“Most Likely To...” Questions

Here are 500 “most likely to...” questions for you to ask your friends, and possibly family if you don’t mind filtering out some of the racier questions. Many of these questions are targeted to adults and mention drinking, sex, and other adult things so use your best judgment with which questions you choose.

Some questions will be kid / family friendly, but many will not.

There are a lot of questions so feel free to skip around and choose whichever ones will be most interesting and appropriate for your group. And please be wary of sensitive folks, some people don’t like hearing that they are most likely to have the dirtiest house. No need to start fights, keep it fun.

For a lot of the questions there are parenthesis which indicate two questions in one, for example:

“Who is most likely to (join/start) a cult?”

You could ask “Who is most likely to join a cult?” or “Who is more likely to start a cult?”.

With all that said, let’s get to the questions!
